Offense charged: Possession of Device Making Equipment

Date of Detention Hearing: September 19, 2011.

The Court, having conducted a detention hearing pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), and based upon the factual findings and statement of reasons for detention hereafter set forth, finds that no condition or combination of conditions which defendant can meet will reasonably assure the appearance of defendant as required and the safety of other persons and the community.

FINDINGS OF FACT AND STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR DETENTION

1. Defendant is charged by Complaint, together with a co-defendant, with

01 possessing a pin-hole camera and card skimming device designed to be affixed to an ATM
02 machine. The Complaint alleges a criminal operation of long-standing duration involving 03 hundreds of victims and hundreds of thousands of dollars, most of which is said to be 04 unaccounted for.

05 2. The defendant, a naturalized United States citizen, has strong family ties to 06 Romania, including a wife, two children, and 10 siblings. There is some discrepancy in the 07 information provided concerning his employment, background and finances. The defendant
08 indicated to Pretrial Services that he had no weapons in the home, although three loaded
09 firearms were seized from a shed.

10 3. The defendant is associated with at least two aliases and identification
11 documents were seized from the defendant's residence with his photograph in another name.
12 The AUSA proffered evidence that defendant may have ties to other known skimmers and 13 contends that his residence appears to be the nerve center of these operations. Furthermore,
14 the AUSA contends that the alleged scheme has international aspects in that some of the cards
15 seized during the search are coded with foreign bank data from Germany and Sweden, implying
16 that there are foreign co-conspirators.

17 4. Defendant poses a risk of nonappearance due to strong family ties to Romania, 18 contradictory background information, and the nature of the instant offense involving access to 19 false identification documents and significant financial resources to assist flight. The 20 defendant poses a risk of danger due to the length and scope of the alleged scheme, and 21 defendant's alleged role.

22 5. There does not appear to be any condition or combination of conditions that will

01 reasonably assure the defendant's appearance at future Court hearings while addressing the 02 danger to other persons or the community.

03 It is therefore ORDERED:

- 04 1. Defendant shall be detained pending trial and committed to the custody of the Attorney
05 General for confinement in a correction facility separate, to the extent practicable, from 06 persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal;
- 07 2. Defendant shall be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with 08 counsel;
- 09 3. On order of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the 10 person in charge of the corrections facility in which defendant is confined shall deliver
11 the defendant to a United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection 12 with a court proceeding; and
- 13 4. The Clerk shall direct copies of this Order to counsel for the United States, to counsel
14 for the defendant, to the United States Marshal, and to the United State Pretrial Services
15 Officer.

16 DATED this 19th day of September, 2011.
